

International Studies Journal

United Nations
Information Centre

The 6th Model UN Security Council

Tehran 24 August 2017

The International Studies Journal (ISJ) and the United Nations Information Center (UNIC) in Tehran are jointly organizing the 6th Model UN Security Council for university students and professors in particular graduate and post-graduate students of law and international relations as well as researchers.

The Programme

The programme will cover three specific issue areas:

1. International law and security, peace and human rights;
2. Simulation methods and research workshops;
3. Global and Regional initiatives to protect peace and human rights.

Preparation

Preparing for a Model United Nations conference can be a very challenging task. One time before the simulation, there will be a pre-conference training workshop for the participants at United Nations Information Centre (UNIC) in Tehran.

Certificate

ISJ and UNIC will award a certificate to all participants who successfully fulfill the workshop assignments, research, and exercises.

Admission Requirements

1. An accredited degree in law, international relations or a relevant field of study;
2. Good command of English or French;
3. Two recommendation letters by professors or sponsoring institutions;
4. Your recent photograph;
5. Letter of application including address, telephone, email and language skills (Persian, English, French);
6. CV/Resume;
7. Payment of 120 Euros (for students) and 200 Euros (for other) upon admission. This fee covers registration, courses, booklet, ISJ quarterly magazines and lunch.
8. ISJ will run a small Cultural Heritage visit of Isfahan for interested participants. This one night and 2 days visits include accommodation, museums visits, Cultural sites visits, interpreters, transportations from Tehran to Isfahan and Tehran, and meals. The fee for the participants is very modest: 500 Euros.

Application & Contacts

Please send applications by mail to:

info@isj.ir

Visas

The ISJ will facilitate obtaining the entry visa.

Registration Deadline: 10 July 2017